K&B Cabinets Wholesale Center is thrilled to announce its latest initiative aimed at offering the best cabinet prices in Georgia to a broader customer base. This initiative targets both homeowners and trade professionals across Atlanta and its neighboring counties, including Fulton, DeKalb, Cobb, Gwinnett, and Clayton. By widening its reach, K&B Cabinets seeks to ensure that more individuals have the opportunity to access affordable luxury kitchen and bathroom cabinets.

Situated in Norcross, GA, K&B Cabinets Wholesale Center is celebrated for being the foremost wholesale provider of superior quality kitchen and bathroom cabinets. The company distinguishes itself through its vast selection of over 400 different items per cabinet line, showcasing a commitment to direct factory products, premium quality lumber, and expert touch techniques. The inclusion of Made in USA Cabinets further underscores the company's dedication to promoting American craftsmanship, highlighting a blend of European aesthetic grace and American robustness.

Moreover, K&B Cabinets Wholesale Center invites local contractors and builders to seize the chance and become a K&B dealer . By doing so, businesses can incorporate Eurocrafts Cabinetry into their array of offerings – a line notable for its European design sensibilities and robust American craftsmanship. Through its dealer program, K&B Cabinets aspires to collaborate with local enterprises to supply the community with exceptional quality kitchen and bathroom cabinets.

A spokesperson from K&B Cabinets Wholesale Center conveyed their excitement regarding the expansion, stating, "We are delighted to broaden our horizons to the Atlanta area. This expansion empowers us to deliver the best cabinet prices in Georgia to an expanded clientele. Our aim is to furnish our customers with affordable cabinetry solutions that do more than fulfill a utilitarian need; they also elevate the beauty of their living spaces."

The company also shed light on the advantages awaiting local businesses that choose to join the dealer program, expressing, "We cordially invite local contractors and builders to join forces with us and become part of the K&B dealer network. Our dealer program offers a golden opportunity to diversify your product lineup with our Eurocrafts Cabinetry line, which takes pride in its Made in USA label. This collaboration is not merely about enhancing your product display; it’s about delivering the finest we have to the communities we serve."

K&B Cabinets Wholesale Center is dedicated to upholding the highest standards of quality, affordability, and variety for all its customers in Norcross, GA, and, now, the expanded Atlanta region. This growth initiative reflects the company's unwavering commitment to making high-end kitchen and bathroom cabinets more accessible to a larger audience, maintaining competitive pricing without compromising on quality.
