The partnership enables the Alexandria showroom, located at 5655 General Washington Drive, to offer an expanded portfolio of all-wood cabinet options with industry-leading three to five day lead times. This development addresses the growing demand from professional contractors and multi-family project developers seeking reliable, fast-turnaround cabinet solutions in the competitive DC Metro construction market.

"This partnership with Kith Kitchen represents a significant advancement in how we serve the professional contracting community in Alexandria and surrounding areas," said a spokesperson for NextDAY Cabinets Alexandria Showroom. "By combining our extensive inventory of Kitchen Cabinets with Kith Kitchen's expertise, we can deliver even greater value to builders and remodeling professionals who require both quality and speed for their projects."
