NextDAY Cabinets Richmond Showroom

August 12, 2024

NextDAY Cabinets has announced the opening of its new showroom in Richmond. The brand-new NextDAY Cabinets Richmond Showroom is set to make it easier for contractors, dealers, and builders in Henrico County to access high-quality and affordable kitchen and bathroom cabinets.

The Richmond Showroom offers a variety of wholesale cabinet and vanity lines from well-known brands like Crestwood, Decora, Forevermark, Mantra, Marsh Furniture, Nations, Waypoint, and Wolf Home Products. In addition to cabinets and vanities, customers will find bathroom accessories, kitchen accessories, closet solutions, and flooring from brands such as MSI and Shaw Flooring.

The CEO of NextDAY Cabinets, expressed their excitement for the new location. "We aim to meet our customers' needs efficiently and effectively. The opening of the Richmond Showroom aligns with this mission, offering a convenient point of access for our customers in Henrico County to choose from a wide selection of wholesale cabinets," they said.

One standout feature of the NextDAY Cabinets Richmond Showroom is its professional 3D kitchen design services, offered at no additional cost. These services help customers visualize their kitchen projects, making it easier to select the right styles, sizes, and finishes. This planning tool is particularly useful for contractors and builders who need to present accurate plans to their clients.

The showroom also provides multiple delivery and pickup options. Customers can pick up their orders directly from the Richmond location or have them delivered to job sites. This flexibility is essential for contractors who need reliable logistics to keep their projects on schedule.

The Operations Manager at NextDAY Cabinets Richmond, highlighted the importance of these services. "We understand that time is critical for our customers. That's why our fast lead times of 3-5 days and various delivery options are designed to help contractors and builders complete their projects without unnecessary delays. Our Richmond Showroom will significantly enhance our current distribution capabilities," they explained.

The company takes pride in offering assembled cabinets that are KCMA (Kitchen Cabinet Manufacturers Association) certified and American-made. This certification ensures that the products meet strict quality and durability standards, giving customers peace of mind about the longevity and reliability of their purchases.

The Richmond Showroom operates from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm on weekdays and from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm on Saturdays, providing ample opportunity for customers to visit and explore the extensive product range.

To further cater to different needs, NextDAY Cabinets features a selection of vanities from reputable brands like Hardware Resources and Aksesuar Design. Whether the project is a simple home renovation or a large commercial build, the showroom has solutions to fit various styles and budgets.
