

UPMAX Digital Marketing Shines at OCEAN Executive Dinner with AI Mastery Insights for Business Growth

UPMAX Digital Marketing Growth Partner · September 27, 2024

UPMAX Digital Marketing Agency recently co-hosted the OCEAN Executive Dinner on AI Mastery at the Istanbul Grill in Fountain Valley, California, on September 24, 2024. The event showcased the progress in AI-driven business growth and provided helpful insights for B2B clients in Southern California, including contractors, designers, and cabinet retailers.

Sezgin Arslan, the founder of UPMAX, was the keynote speaker, sharing his knowledge of AI-driven marketing strategies. The event was hosted by Todd Herschberg, the founder of OCEAN, a well-known business networking group in Orange County. Attendees enjoyed high-quality Mediterranean food, adding to the upscale experience of the evening.

"UPMAX is committed to helping cabinet, remodeling, and home services businesses through comprehensive digital marketing solutions," said Sezgin Arslan. "Our aim is to help these businesses succeed by using AI for SEO optimization, smart paid advertising campaigns, custom web design, and expert social media management."

The dinner also offered a great chance for over a hundred Southern California professionals to network, build trust, exchange ideas, and create new business opportunities. Attendees gave positive feedback, highlighting the networking possibilities and key AI strategy insights as the major benefits of the event.

"Events like the OCEAN Executive Dinner are important for building meaningful relationships and promoting professional growth," said Todd Herschberg. "We were excited to feature Sezgin Arslan, whose insights into AI-driven marketing gave attendees practical strategies to improve their business operations."
